Program Description

This after-school program provides a fun and structured environment centered around Dungeons & Dragons. The program is designed to foster creativity, teamwork, problem-solving, arithmetic skills, reading comprehension, and positive social interaction in a guided setting.

Behavior Expectations

To ensure a positive experience for all participants, we ask both parents and children to review and agree to the following expectations:

1. Respect for Counselors and Staff:

- Participants must listen to instructions from counselors and staff.
- Participants are expected to use respectful language and tone.
- Disrespectful or argumentative behavior toward staff will not be tolerated.

2. Respect for Fellow Participants:

- Participants should speak kindly to one another.
- Teasing, put-downs, bullying, or exclusionary behavior is not allowed.
- Players must take turns and share game materials as directed.

3. Game Conduct:

- Players are expected to remain engaged and follow the rules of the game being played.
- If a disagreement about the rules arises, the counselor's ruling is final.

4. Self-Control and Safety:

- Participants must keep hands, feet, and objects to themselves.
- Running, roughhousing, or throwing items is not allowed.
- If a student becomes overly upset, they may take a short break to calm down.

5. No Electronic Devices:

- Participants must refrain from using school provided laptops or other electronic devices.

Behavioral Response

If a participant is having difficulty meeting behavior expectations, staff may take the following steps:

- Verbal reminder and redirection
- Temporary removal from the game/activity to regroup
- Parent/guardian notification if behavior continues
- In cases of repeated or serious behavior issues, a participant may be dismissed from the program (temporary or permanent) without refund

Agreement & Consent

I understand and agree to support the behavior expectations outlined above. I acknowledge that the activities in this program involve group interaction and counselor guidance, and I will reinforce these expectations with my child.

I understand that failure to follow expectations may result in temporary or permanent dismissal from the program.
